

---

NPA CAMPAIGN COMMITMENTS TO THE 2018 HOT PINK PAPER

---

During the campaign, NPA committed to the following policy and action recommendations proposed in Women Transforming Cities' 2018 Hot Pink Paper Campaign.

---

INDIGENOUS WOMEN AND GIRLS

- ☐ Ensure culturally-safe engagement policies
- ☐ Include Indigenous women in candidates for Mayor, Council, School, and Park Board

---

AFFORDABLE HOUSING

- ☐ Build more safe, low income, affordable housing units that are women friendly

---

CHILD CARE

- ☐ Partner with the provincial government to create new spaces and facilities

---

ELECTORAL REFORM

- ☐ NPA doesn't endorse any of the proposals

---

ENDING VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN

- ☐ Conduct a full safety audit of the City of Vancouver
- ☐ Allocate funding for organizations doing anti violence work
- ☐ Organize a city-wide, anti-violence campaign, coordinated by the Mayor's Office and women's anti-violence organizations

---

ENVIRONMENT, CLIMATE CHANGE, AND RESILIENCE

- ☐ Review the City's Greenest City Action Plan and emergency preparedness strategies related to climate change with a gendered intersectional lens
- ☐ Enhance community engagement strategies to ensure the inclusivity of diverse women and girls

---

TRANSPORTATION

- ☐ Create safer transit and stations

---

WOMEN, WORK, AND INCOME

- ☐ Advocate for a provincial and federal anti-poverty plan

---

YOUNG WOMEN

- ☐ Fund programs that support the creation of women-friendly service hubs and incubators to develop skills and networks
- ☐ Create gender-specific programs to learn about, and participate in city planning, municipal elections, and other civic engagement activities

---

IMMIGRANT, MIGRANT, AND REFUGEE WOMEN

- ☐ Hire a City advocate to support immigrant, migrant and refugee women
- ☐ Address systemic barriers present in areas such as housing and violence

---

INTERSECTIONALITY

- ☐ Develop a gendered intersectional framework to be applied to all City policies, programs, budgets, funding, staffing and governance